

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Jade is walking down the sidewalk and sees a boy throwing rocks at birds.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Jade is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Shen arrived at the park and saw that his favorite slide had been vandalized.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Shen is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

As Luna sat in class, she overheard two girls saying mean things about her friend Anisa.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Luna is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Anisa and her friends studied very hard for their upcoming test. Their teacher helped them. The next day, Anisa saw another classmate take the teacher's answer key.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Anisa is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Kofi and his dad were riding in the car when they saw a man pull over and abandon a dog on the side of the road.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Kofi is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Imani was playing at the park when she saw a boy pull a younger girl's hair then laugh loudly about it.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Imani is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2

Recognizing Disgust

Empathy

TITLE: Recognizing Disgust

SCENARIO:

Gabriel worked really hard on a drawing for a school project. He set it on his desk and walked away to sharpen his pencil. When he returned, he saw that someone had scribbled all over it.

QUESTIONS:

- Do you think Gabriel is feeling disgusted? Why or why not?
- What could be wrong in this situation?

GRADE 2